

PROSPERITY WEEK TO BE HUMMER

Indications Point to Opening of Fair on Time. With Many Exhibits.

FORMAL OPENING IS SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT

Daily Booster, Known as "Prosperity Advocate," to Be Issued During Week.

"Prosperity week," to be held at the Chamber of Commerce building April 2 to 10, will be formally opened this evening at 8 o'clock by George S. McAllister, president of the Manufacturers' association. Following the opening by the Ladies' G. A. R. band, President McAllister will deliver a brief address setting forth the purpose of the fair and calling attention to a few of the good results which it is hoped to have accomplished by the exhibition. The wheels of progress will then be metaphorically set in motion and the affair declared formally opened.

Thursday evening the executive committee of the fair sent out invitations to members of the Manufacturers' association, the Real Estate association and the officers and board of governors of the Commercial club. The invitation follows:

You are cordially invited to attend the formal opening of the Prosperity Fair and industrial exhibition of the Utah Chamber of Commerce, 56 West Third South street, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

Your presence will be appreciated, and we bespeak your kindly influence in assisting us to make the fair an unqualified success. Respectfully,
MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION OF UTAH.

GEORGE S. McALLISTER, President.
L. J. HADDOCK, Secretary.
"Buy and Boost Utah Products."

Will Publish Booster.

Arrangements have been made by R. C. Skelton, chairman of the publicity committee, to have a booster paper published every day of the exhibition. The publication, which will be called the "Prosperity Advocate," will be 11 by 17 inches in size, and will be devoted to the interests of the fair. Attention will be called to the different products which are being manufactured in the state and there will also be comments on the progress of the fair and many matters of interest to business men of the city and state.

Present indications point to the fair being opened on time. Thursday afternoon all the booths were ready and the exhibits were being put into place. A huge sign, "Welcome," has been placed just inside the entrance to the building, and lines of electric lights and festoons of flowers will be arranged across the building from side to side. The booths are all decorated with bright colors and with flowers. The Forster-Walton Floral company will give away carnations to all visitors to the fair on the opening night.

Arrangements have been made by the Utah Gas and Coke company to furnish gas to all demonstrators at the fair free of cost. The company will also provide an exhibition in the directors' room of the Utah State Fair association, with a "model kitchen," and a display of ranges, and will give a demonstration of the method of cooking by means of gas.

COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK TO CHANGE NAME

The charter of the Commercial National bank of this city expires May 6, having been in existence for twenty years, and with the granting of a new charter a change of name will be made to the Commercial National bank. It has been decided to increase the capital stock of the institution from $200,000 to $250,000. No changes will be made in the personnel of the bank and business will be conducted as in the past.

F. E. Cochrane, president of the bank, said Thursday night that on the expiration of the charter of a bank it was possible to renew the charter by changing to a new one. Under the latter method it was necessary to choose a new name for the bank and the Commercial National bank was made at the desire of the stockholders. The annual election of directors and officers of the bank will be held on the receipt of the new charter.

LARGE STORE TO CHANGE QUARTERS

Salt Lake Hardware Company to Have New Home on Main Street.

ONE OF THE LARGEST IN UNITED STATES

New Place of Business Will Be a Model in Every Respect.

Salt Lake's great hardware establishment is to change its quarters at an early day and by June 1 expects to be in its new home in the Union block, on South Main street.

Several weeks ago the Salt Lake Hardware company closed a deal by which the north half of the Union block, on South Main street, passed into its control. The building is now occupied by The Fair, the Columbian Optical company, and J. F. Boes, on the ground floor, while the upper portion has been used as a rooming house. These tenants have all been notified to vacate and will remove within a few days.

Plans are now being prepared and the building will be remodeled on the main street front, which is fifty feet wide. A structure will be erected in the rear, and when completed the building will have a frontage of fifty feet, by 230 feet in depth, three stories high. This will give the company 62,000 square feet of surface, a larger area than the company has in its present quarters. The improvements in the building will necessitate an expenditure of $100,000.

For Retail Trade.

This great building will, when completed, be used by the Salt Lake Hardware company exclusively for a retail store, with wholesale sample salesrooms upon the upper floor. The wholesale business of the firm will be transacted in the monster building which the company has almost ready for occupancy on North Third West street, the largest building by the way, in the United States west of Chicago. This will be completed at an early day.

The entire front of the Salt Lake Hardware building will be plate glass and white the lower floor will have a street frontage of over fifty feet, it will have seventy-five feet of window frontage. This will be brought about by making the entrance twenty feet from the front, with a window frontage on the north side, upon the alley, of twelve feet.

Best in Country. The new establishment will be the most modern, the most complete, the most thoroughly equipped retail hardware establishment in the United States. Nothing will be lacking in order to facilitate the rapid movement of the retail trade.

Work will commence at once on the transformation of the building, and new alterations will begin next week. The plans are well under way by the architects, and will be all ready by Monday. The outline drawings show a modern structure and the details of the exterior, when completed, will, as stated, make it the most modern retail hardware establishment in the United States.

Halloran, president of the Commercial club; Governor William W. Eaton, John S. Bransford, General E. A. Wedgwood of the Utah National guard, Captain F. M. Savage, adjutant of the Fifteenth United States infantry, stationed at Fort Douglas; Joseph E. Caine, Professor George A. Eaton, principal of the Salt Lake high school; Dr. G. B. Pfoutz, R. F. The train carrying Admiral Evans is scheduled to arrive here over the Oregon Short Line railroad at 6:50 o'clock this evening. Full details of the affair have not yet been decided, but it is intended to give the admiral a banquet at the club on one evening of his stay here and a reception on another evening.

These matters will be decided upon some time today.

JORDAN STATE BANK ASKS AN INJUNCTION

Writ Is Sought to Keep the Fitzgeralds From the Institution.

The troubles of the Jordan State bank at Bingham Junction reached the courts Thursday. The bank brought suit in the third district court, Thursday morning, to oust J. W. Fitzgerald and Walter D. Fitzgerald, father and son, from the respective positions of president and cashier, which they refused to relinquish. The suit is based upon the affidavit of Henry T. McEwan, the new vice-president of the institution. The suit follows right upon the heels of the row in the bank Wednesday morning.

At a meeting held early in March, William Aylett was elected president of the Jordan bank and J. W. Fitzgerald retired from the presidency to the directorate. At a meeting of seven stockholders Monday of this week, Fitzgerald was elected as cashier and D. John Bloom elected in his place. President Aylett was not present, however, and declared the election of Bloom illegal, for the reason that he had received no notice of the meeting, and when Bloom went to the bank to assume his place as cashier, Wednesday morning, Fitzgerald refused to give way to him, and a stormy scene ensued. This was followed by a run on the bank by the anti-Nelson faction at Bingham Junction, and it is understood that the Junction people have withdrawn virtually all of their money from the institution.

The suit takes the form of an application for a writ of injunction against the Fitzgeralds, and particularly the younger Fitzgerald, to restrain them from entering the bank and interfering with the new cashier, Bloom.

MRS. MAYNARD AGAIN DISCUSSES SOCIALISM

Mrs. Ellen Tupper Maynard delivered another lecture on socialism at the public library Thursday evening. Mrs. Maynard said that socialism was one of the most effective combinations of sentiment and practical interpretation of the present industrial needs of the country extant.

For the purpose of illustration, Mrs. Maynard cited former President Roosevelt's recent attack on socialism, and some other hard things concerning Mr. Roosevelt's understanding of socialism. She also stated that the reason why Mr. Roosevelt had brought socialism before the public eye is that "the socialists have something which neither Mr. Roosevelt nor Mr. Bryan has found."

Ralph Korngold will lecture on the same subject Sunday evening.

COVEY INVESTMENT COMPANY THE OWNER

Building to Be Seven Stories in Height, and Modern in Every Respect.

The acquisition by the Covey Investment company from Herman Bamberger, A. M. Gordon and the Salt Lake Security and Trust company of the property at the corner of A street and South Temple, for $50,000 Thursday afternoon will mean the beginning of a large improvement in apartment house property, which will involve the ultimate investment of between $100,000 and $500,000.

Full details of the project are lacking at the present time, but it is known that a seven-story apartment house will be erected on the property, which will contain 200 suites of rooms, three roof gardens, elevators and a complete equipment which will make the building one of the best in the city. A feature of the building will be the two large courts opening on South Temple. D. C. Dart has been selected as the architect for the new building.

A. A. Covey left Thursday for the east, where he will spend several weeks studying some of the more recent improvements in apartment house construction. In the meantime, the demolition of the structures which now occupy the premises will be started and the contract for the construction of the building will probably be let in a few weeks.

DIRECTORS ACCEPT MURRAY FRANCHISE

Also Decide to Construct Line From Salt Lake to Sandy.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Utah Light and Railway company, Thursday, it was decided to accept the conditions of the Murray franchise, over which there has been so much trouble recently, and the company will immediately begin the reconstruction of the Murray line. One of the conditions of the franchise is that the company will be compelled to grant a five-cent fare between Salt Lake City and Murray. This condition was accepted, and in ten years from now a five-cent fare will go into effect.

The building of a line between Salt Lake City and Bingham Junction and Sandy was also considered at the meeting Thursday, and it was decided to begin work on this as soon as possible. This line will be about eleven miles long and will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. It is hoped to have it completed within a year.

GRANT TELLS WHY HE DIDN'T GET SUMMONS

Was in England With Plural Wife When Instrument Was Served.

Heber J. Grant, "the singing apostle," went on the witness stand in Judge Morse's division of the third district court Thursday afternoon and testified in his suit against Franklin Lawrence, to set aside an old judgment against him and in favor of Lawrence, on the grounds that he failed to receive a summons in the case, that he was in England when the summons was issued. On cross-examination the apostle also admitted that he was accompanied by one of his plural wives, but failed to specify which one.

Apostle Grant's suit was to set aside a judgment entered in 1903, quieting title to ground in lot 3, block 29, 5-acre plat A, Big Field survey, in Lawrence. The apostle testified that he knew nothing about the action until about a year after the entry of judgment against him. He was successful in showing that he had received no notice of the filing of the suit, and the court entered an order vacating the old judgment and reopening the case. The apostle will now try to get the property back.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO ENTERTAIN THE ELKS

Matters Connected With Welcome to Visitors Discussed by Board of Governors.

At the meeting of the board of governors of the Commercial club Thursday afternoon matters relating to the entertainment of the 25,000 Elks who are expected to visit the city on their way to attend the annual convention at Los Angeles next July were considered and it was decided to place the details of the affairs in the hands of the convention committee of the club. A reciprocal arrangement between the Commercial club of Salt Lake and the Traffic club of Denver was approved by the board of governors of the club here. The arrangement is intended to promote a closer relation of the commercial bodies of the three cities and all the courtesies of membership will be granted to members of all the clubs at all of the three.

Reports of the building committee relating to the time of completing the new club building were received and approved. A beautifully embossed and framed resolution extended to the club from the officers of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, thanking the officers and members of the club for their assistance in carrying on the triennial convention last September, was also accepted in the name of the club and a suitable notification of the acceptance forwarded to the officers of the brotherhood.

RECEIPT RECORD BROKEN IN THE CITY COURT

The civil division of the city court broke the record in receipts for the month just ended, according to the clerk's report ready to go to the city recorder. The receipts amounted to $37,753. This is the record, the clerk claims. The next highest month was July of 1908, when the receipts amounted to $18,800.

The court received 216 complaints in the month just ended, held thirty-nine cases, issued 161 executions and nineteen writs of attachments. Four cases went out of the court on appeals to the district court.

Also Will Be in Nature of Brief History of Utah and the G. A. R.

Copies of the souvenir booklet, which is to be issued in an edition of 30,000 by the local executive committee of the forty-third national encampment of the G. A. R., are about ready, and will be published in a few days. The book is designed for the use of the veterans who come here next August, and contains a great deal of valuable information regarding the city and state, names of the committees, a brief history of the Grand Army of the Republic and a number of handsome pictures of prominent buildings and scenes about the state.

The circumstances connected with the decision of the G. A. R. to come here are set forth with considerable completeness. The invitation of Salt Lake City to the G. A. R. veterans is shown in detail; the names of delegates to the previous encampments at which the matter was brought up are shown, and full details of the undertaking, many of which are valuable to the veterans as souvenirs, are also given.

History of G. A. R. Then follows a history of the organization of the G. A. R. from the first beginnings, when the matter was discussed by patriotic veterans at Decatur, Ill., on April 6, 1866; a description of the first encampment held at Springfield, Ill., July 12, 1866, and of the subsequent encampments up to the one held at Toledo last summer. A complete list of the different commanders-in-chief is given.

Matters relating to the coming encampment, including a complete statement of how to reach this city, are then set forth, and the rate of fare from Chicago as a starting point, the round trip fare from there being given as $37.40. A list of the hotels of the city, their accommodations and rates, is also given
